What is It?

The national capital appears to be a long ways behind Los Angeles in the matter of street transportation, and seems, in some respects, to be surrounded with much of the same atmosphere that enveloped it when it was a sleepy Southern town, before the war. The Star, in speaking of Washington's street car system, says: "The cars should be clean and at night well lighted. Most of the horse cars—in fact, all of them—are dingy as dungeons after sundown. The lamps, which occasionally emit sufficient light to prevent collisions, between outgoing and incoming passengers, are filthy and ill-smelling, an abiding nuisance of the most annoying sort."

This is surely not a very alluring picture of the public conveniences for street travel in that city. That such a condition of things can be found at the national capital is not calculated to impress the foreign visitor very favorably as regards American enterprise and progress. The problem of safe and rapid transit has long been solved, and modern street cars are models of comfort and cleanliness, as well as swift locomotion. Los Angeles, less than two decades old as a truly American city, has far outstripped the century-old capital of the nation in the facilities for street travel. Her many lines of electric and cable cars form a great network throughout the city, crossing and recrossing each other, moving with smooth celerity along the many lines of track, brilliant at night as glowing meteors, telling the story of long reaches of swift-moving cables, or the triumphs of applied electricity. Washington, the political center of a great continent, is a quarter of a century behind Los Angeles in the application of science to street locomotion, and modern inventions as applied to street car illumination. The cause of this is not so very hard to find. Los Angeles is a city of today. The best of modern life—its principle of progress, may be found here, and there is something in the magnificent scale on which nature is built here to foster advancement, to encourage the spirit of invention and hasten the growth of modern enterprise.

Washington has not entirely shaken off the old spirit of conservatism that enveloped it before the days of "Boss Shepherd," who was the greatest transforming power it has ever known. It needs another decade of such rule as his. The city was torn up from center to circumference in his day, and sometimes it was questioned if order could ever be brought out of such chaos. The writer of this remembers well the upheavals which were wrought and the beauty and loveliness which was ultimately evolved. Rip Van Winkle was awakened from his long slumber and looked about him in speechless wonder at the transformation which had been accomplished, which was as great as that wrought by the old Roman Emperor who found Rome a city of brick and left it a city of marble. But the spirit of modern innovation seems not to have kept pace, in all respects, with that of modern invention at the national capital. It may look about it and learn of far-off Los Angeles, lying upon the sunset slope of the New World, but every pulse astir with progress, and with hands reaching out to put to practical use the most helpful inventions of the age.

Washington has its palatial homes, but they supply less to men's needs than many things which we boast of and which Washington does not possess. Men live so fast in these modern days that everything which accelerates travel and saves time has put upon it the highest value. Swift locomotion, both along the streets of cities and the great highways of traffic, is what the age demands. What is there in America's capital that prevents its general introduction there, and causes to linger about it so much of the atmosphere of ante-bellum days? It is a city of grand thoroughfares, of magnificent parks and palatial homes, of royal-public buildings and fine art galleries, and why is it that the people are content with the antiquated horse car, ill-smelling "and dingy as dungeons?" It must have a touch of something un-American about it, something of the slowness of the "mossback" Democracy.

Washington city seems to be suffering from a plague of fleas. The Star of that city says: "The driving of sheep through the Interior Department building is the latest suggestion as to a means of getting rid of the fleas that have located there. It is a curious sort of remedy, but it seems to be theoretically sound. If it can be demonstrated that these insects have such a fondness for mutton that they will desert the habitations of human beings to gratify it no considerations of compassion for the sheep will have any weight."

While the Democratic party was on both sides of the war question during the rebellion, on both sides of the greenback question, and on both sides of the tariff question, no one will question that it has been, and is, entirely consistent and one-sided on that great question which comes closest to its sympathies—the office-seeking and office-holding question.

No More Free Farms.

The New York Sun notes the opening of the Cherokee Strip on the 16th of September as the final distribution of the nation's domain. It presents tables from census reports showing that the acres of cultivated land increased from 81,000,000 in 1855 to 195,200,000 in 1884, and that in the succeeding nine years the additions have only been at about the rate of a million a year, and during the last four years they have averaged less than 500,000 acres a year. The proportion of those who seek farms is as great now as it ever was, and there being no more free farms to be had the tide of emigration must be turned backward to older sections of the country, and to dividing the large, unwieldy farms into smaller holdings. This has already been done to a considerable extent. The whole effect of this condensation, the Sun thinks, must be to lessen the proportion of land employed for growing staple crops of grain and cotton by withdrawing it for the better culture and greater care required in gardening and small fruit growing. It is very unlikely that our grain and cotton crops will ever increase as they have done. What new acreage is gained in the West and Southwest is even now offset by withdrawal of land in the older section of the country. When the 50,000 farms that the Cherokee Strip may make are added to our cultivated area it will furnish food for perhaps five months supply to our present population, which is now increasing at the rate of 1,500,000 yearly. This shows plainly within a few years the home demand for agricultural products will require all that we can produce. Then must come the era of better farming, which we have long been hoping for, but which has been retarded by the competition of large areas of virgin soil brought under cultivation. Better farming must be the rule to furnish food on which the increasing population of this country must live.

There is another lesson to be drawn from this disappearance of public land, to which The Times has frequently referred. This is the urgent duty of the government to take steps without delay for the irrigation of the great arid lands of the West, which are now lying idle and useless.

Train Robberies.

Scarcely a week now passes without a train robbery. An Eastern exchange has the following in regard to making "the punishment fit the crime": "There are forcible arguments in favor of such an amendment of the Federal criminal code as will make the penalty for train robbery much more severe than it now is. It is not sufficient that the miscreant who enters a car and holds up passengers at the muzzle of his revolver is sent to the penitentiary for a term of years, even though no passenger was killed or wounded. The robbery of a train might well be a capital crime just as arson in the first degree is a capital crime in New York, and arson in the first degree consists in setting fire to an occupied dwelling-house. A little more drastic law against train robbers and there would be less robbing." In Arizona train robbery is a capital offense, and so far, we believe, there has been no robbery in that Territory since the law was passed. There are various grades of train robbery. The man who builds a train at the muzzle of a shotgun takes, in a measure, his life in his hands, but for the miscreant who displaces a rail and sends scores of innocent people to an awful death for the sake of what plunder he may gather, hanging is certainly too mild a punishment.

The Chinese Question.

Collector Quinn of San Francisco has been making some estimates on the amount of money which the Chinese have carried or sent out of the country during the past thirty years. His figures are larger than any which we have yet seen. He estimates that during that period the Chinese have sent or taken away to China $810,000,000, and to that fact he attributes in a great degree the scarcity of money in the United States at the present time. Besides this during the thirty years the balance of trade between the United States and China has been in favor of the latter country, the annual difference being about $5,000,000. It is the common idea that only silver is taken away by the Chinese, but Mr. Quinn shows that this is not so. Chinese send large sums by way of exchange on London banks, which calls for gold. Even after making large deductions from Mr. Quinn's estimate the total remains a very large one. There is no doubt that this constant shipment of gold and silver from California has proved a severe drain upon the resources of the State, and has prevented it from progressing as rapidly as it would otherwise have done. It would, as The Times has frequently stated, be an excellent thing if the Chinese laborers now in the State could be supplanted by industrious white men with families. This, however, cannot be done in a moment, or in a year. The change must be gradual. To ship the Chinese population of the State away en masse would do far more harm than good. In fact, it would undoubtedly demoralize some of our leading industries.

tries to such an extent that it would take them years to recover from the shock. If the time for registration is extended and the exclusion act strictly enforced the Chinese question will gradually settle itself. These people do not breed in this state; their numbers will regularly diminish by death, removal to China, and to other parts of the country, while the white population of the State is constantly increasing, so that if the exclusion act is strictly enforced the Chinese will, within a few years, no longer be an important factor in the economy of the State.

Meantime any attempts at violence against the Chinese or those who employ them can only result in working us injury by prejudicing Eastern people still more against our reasonable demands.

The Dilemma of Railroads.

An Ohio contemporary presents a nut for the railroad men to crack who have recently taken to striking in settlement of their wage disputes. According to Poor's Manual, operating expenses have steadily increased since 1886, while the net earnings have steadily decreased. The table, made up of averages, is as follows:

	1892.	1891.	1890.	1886.
Gross earnings...	$6,886	$6,826	$6,315	$6,750
Net earnings...	2,068	2,168	2,125	2,276

Operating expenses... $4,918 $4,758 $4,751 $4,194
Per cent. operating... 70.4 68.8 73.3 62.84
It will be observed that the gross earnings were slightly increased, but the benefits of such increase were at once absorbed, and more, too, by the increase in operating expenses. In the last few months, the gross earnings on all railroads have fallen off at an appalling rate, while the operating expenses have remained practically the same thus reducing the net earnings in many cases to nil, or worse than that, bringing the gross earnings to a point where they did not equal the operating expenses, as has been the case with many of the Western roads. Even the reduction of 10 per cent. in wages on many of the roads will not enable the managers to keep the property out of a receiver's hands. The folly of strikes under such circumstances is at once apparent.

It is only within the past few years that the Americans have been, to any considerable extent, a beer-consuming people, but the consumption of this beverage is rapidly increasing, and promises soon to place us on a level with Great Britain, which comes after Germany as a beer-consuming nation. According to the official report of the past twelve months, the American people drank only 8,383,720 barrels of beer in 1875, while last year we drank 31,475,159, and this year 32,576,466, an increase of 2,459,540 barrels. This consumption of beer is now half a barrel a capita, and is doubling about every eight years. At the beginning of the next century it promises to be a barrel a head. As far as this beer takes the place of whisky, many will consider that the increased consumption of the lighter beverage is a good sign.

Few people, who have not given the matter any investigation, would believe that the value of the coffee which is drunk in the United States every year is almost as great as that of all the wheat and flour which is exported from this country. Yet such is the case. For the year ending June 30 our exports of wheat amounted to $93,534,970, and of flour $75,483,347, a total of $169,028,317, while the imports of coffee were valued at $140,292,727. In view of these facts the suggestion has been made that if the United States is to acquire more territory, instead of looking to Canada, we should try to secure the Central American States, with the Nicaragua Canal running through them, and thus raise this important product on our own territory.

Los Angeles is confronted with a serious problem just now, in the arrival during the past few days of a large number of impetuous, unemployed men from the East, attracted by reports that the Chinese were all to be deported. They seem to have organized in bands under leaders, and to have forced themselves on freight trains. This section has at present all it can do to take care of its own unemployed, and the new element will complicate the question. Some of these men are doubtless really looking for work, but among them are said to be some fall birds. The difficulty should be confronted before it becomes more serious.

Within twenty years the British government has cleared nearly $70,000,000 by its investment in the shares of the Suez Canal. During 1892, of the 3581 vessels passing through the canal, 2559 were British, 292 German, 174 French, and two American. It is to be hoped that by the time the Nicaragua Canal is completed the proportion of American vessels which will pass through it will be much larger than in the above figures, which show with painful plainness the decadence of the United States as a maritime power.

The Democrats deal the monetary question a black eye in their haste to announce that a new tariff bill will be presented within a month, so that business men can proceed with more confidence. This is practically an acknowledgment on their part that silver legislation is not the most important thing that can be conceived.

Dignities have been discovered in Washington that are said to pay $20 to $100 per day to each man. Now there will be a big rush; the storekeepers will get rich, and lots of other people will add to their store of experience.

Proceedings in Congress appear to be degenerating into a parliamentary controversy between the two parties, which is quite interesting, but does not satisfy the longings of the people for a settlement of the vexed questions now before Congress.

The Washington Star very pointedly says: "The mills all over the country are getting down to actual work. Senatorial windmills should observe and ponder." To which the whole country ejaculates "amen!"

(AMUSEMENT RECORD.) AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

COMING ATTRACTION.—There is much to interest one in "A Nutmeg Match," which comes to the Los Angeles Theater Monday and Tuesday, September 23 and 24. It all reports are to be believed a true story. New England life, quietly, naturally and effectively told, and heightened by striking stage effects and beautiful scenery, is how it is (invariably) made to be a comedy entrance. She is chased by a wild bull, and makes her appearance by coming headfirst over a high fence. Later that serious and despondent, until at one point it becomes nearly tragic.

The stage effects are strikingly realistic, and the scenery is so good, and their novelty has created a sensation wherever the play has been produced.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

Should Meet Cordial Support.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21.—(To the Editor of The Times.) Your editorial suggestion in yesterday's Times, regarding a wagon road to Mt. Wilson, should meet the cordial approval of every one. The present proprietors of the Mt. Wilson toll road have done much to make the summit conveniently accessible, but a toll road is insufficient to accommodate those whose health will not permit a somewhat tedious (to be inevitable) and burr-ridden ride. There should be a good, easy wagon or carriage road from base to summit, and such is quite practicable by the expenditure of a few thousand dollars.

Easy accessibility to these beautiful scenes and into its bracing and healthful air, would make it a most sought after health resort in California, the land of many climates. This country can well afford to become possessed of a road of this kind, and even such necessity as this would be when made into a good, comfortable wagon-way free from toll, where the summit of one of our grand mountains in the State would be accessible.

We invite invalids to our State, but we should also assist in providing, for the benefit of the invalids, the means of their reaching health. San Bernardino county has set us a good example by building a road to the summit of Mt. San Antonio, hundreds of campers find new life and good health among the pine-laden breezes of its mountains.

It is a mountain road which will be kept alive until a mountain road as suggested will become an accomplished fact. A. F. R.

About Divorces.

SANTA ANA, Sept. 19, 1895.—(To the Editor of The Times.) I wish to know how long does one have to be in the State before they can apply for a divorce. Please answer this question and oblige. B. H. Stewart, Santa Ana.

See section 128, Civil Code—Ed. Times.

(SOCIAL RECORD.) IN SOCIAL SPHERES.

At the close of the seaside and mountain resort season, society begins to revive new life. The latest organization, intended to provide relaxation for the busy and occupation for those who have leisure, is a ladies' Shakespeare club. The organization has been effected, and a programme in part decided upon. The first play to be taken up is "Hamlet," and the club is to meet under the direction of Mrs. Tupper Galpin. All interested in Shakespearean study are invited to address Miss Emma Dunn, the club secretary, at No. 537 Broadway.

BOHEMIAN CLUB.

The Bohemian Club held an enjoyable meeting last evening, at No. 618 South Broadway, the following short programme of entertainment being rendered: Solo, "Recompense"—J. W. Barr. Elocutionary selection—J. S. Reardon. Piano solo—Mrs. Sanders. Musical selection—Miss Alfrey. Selection entitled "Uncle"—S. F. Moody.

The following new names were proposed and elected: Mrs. Sanders, Miss Jennie Kempton, Miss F. H. Harison, Messrs. Hanby, S. F. Moody, Stow, Henderson.

The club decided to hold a public entertainment early in October. A DINNER PARTY. A delightful dinner party was given last evening at the Santa Clara, No. 324 West Third street. Covers were laid for eighteen, and a choice menu was served. The handsome dining room, newly furnished for the occasion, was beautifully decorated with smilax and La France roses, and the occasion was very enjoyable.

RECEPTION TO MRS. COLE.—Next Monday afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock, a reception will be tendered Mrs. J. H. Cole, at the residence of Mrs. Willis, No. 501 Buena Vista street. Mrs. Cole, who has returned from Chicago and the East, where her musical attainments met most pleasing recognition, and where warm admirers among the friends in the old home were legion. She will be pleased to meet the members of the Treble Clef Club at this reception.

Y.M.C.A. SOCIAL.

There will be a social at the Young Men's Christian Association, this evening. A special programme has been prepared, and a grand, good time is expected. All friends of the association are welcome.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.
Rev. J. S. Thomsen, pastor of Unity Church, left Sunday night for Chicago, accompanied by Mrs. Thomson, and her mother, Mrs. Smith. A telegram received yesterday announces their safe arrival in a few days. Mrs. Thomsen is viewing the fair Dr. Thomson will return to resume church services October 1.

Mrs. and Mrs. Emery of Pearl street have returned home after a three months' visit East.

Southern California is well represented at the meeting of the Pacific Coast Women's Press Association, now in session in San Francisco, as will be seen by the following preliminary notice from the Call of Wednesday: "The opening meeting of the third annual convention of the Pacific Coast Women's Press Association takes place this morning at 10 o'clock at Union Hall. There will be an executive session in the morning, and an open meeting at 2 p.m., at which an interesting programme will be presented. Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Stetson, acting president, will deliver the president's address, and there will be papers by Mrs. Carl Schutze of San Diego, and Mrs. J. S. Thomsen of Los Angeles. The programme for the evening is an informal reception to members, at which Mrs. Sarah B. Cooper will give an address on the work of women at the World's Fair. Among the women writers of this work who are present at the convention are Mrs. Madge Morrell, Mrs. Liberty Bell, Mrs. Dr. Dorothea Lumsden, Miss Tessa Kelso, Mrs. Emma Seckle Marshall and Mrs. Clara Spaulding Brown of Los Angeles; Mrs. Jeanne C. Carr of Pasadena, Mrs. Evelyn Ludlum of San Diego."

San Geronimo Valley Fruit.

Several specimens of fruit from Robert Currier's orchard in the San Geronimo Valley, near Beaumont, were left at The Times office last evening. One of the peaches weighed nearly a pound, and was a beauty. Specimens of several other fruits, including plums, etc., were also exhibited. The fruit is as fine as any grown in the State.

THE METHODISTS.

The Second Day of the Conference.

Usual Routine Business at the Morning Session.

A Stirring Address by Dr. Charles H. Payne.

What Has Been Accomplished Toward Educating Candidates for the Ministry—A Missionary Meeting.

The second day of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church opened with a session at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The first half hour was given to prayer and praise, led by T. S. Uren. At 9 o'clock Bishop Andrews took the chair. Minutes of Wednesday's session were read and approved, and the roll of absentees of Wednesday was called.

The bishop announced the transfer of Stephen Gascoigne, of Columbia River Conference, and Arthur A. Graves, from the Newark Conference, to the Southern California Conference.

The statistical secretary reported the charges that had neglected to hand in their statistical reports. The twentieth question was then taken up, and E. W. Caswell was then called, his character passed, and he reported Santa Barbara district.

The following were called, their characters passed, and they reported their collections, viz: A. M. Osborn, W. F. Wenk, G. L. Spring, Silas Sprowles, F. M. Warrington, Stephen Gascoigne, C. G. Belknap, J. D. Monroe, J. W. Morris, W. L. Douglas, J. W. Stowell, R. S. Uren, W. Wood, J. M. Rich, T. S. Uren.

The name of O. J. McFadden, serving in the Arizona mission, was called, and his character passed. He reported a change in relations to his case, was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

G. D. Weaver was reported withdrawn from the church and the Methodist ministry.

The name of E. S. Chase was called, and his character passed, and he reported Santa Diego district.

The following effective elders were called, their characters passed, and they reported their collections, viz: W. H. Stowell, J. C. Gowan, P. D. Ashleigh, J. B. Green, A. A. H. Stowell, J. C. Gowan, J. W. Wood, J. M. Rich, T. S. Uren, W. L. Douglas, J. M. Hartley, T. W. Lincoln, T. R. Lovelock, C. L. Libby.

J. C. H. Stowell was called, and his character passed. W. W. Bailey, S. P. Sowden, G. E. Morrison, J. M. Harris, and J. W. Goodell, desiring a change of relations, were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

The death of J. H. Peters was reported. Question 22 was taken up: "Who are the supernumerary preachers?" W. C. Wilson, T. P. Bradshaw, G. S. Umpleby, L. L. Rogers, and D. A. Crowell were named.

The following were passed in character and continued in the supernumerary relation: W. D. Lowder, J. E. Turner, J. A. McMillan, and Gregory were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations. Daniel Cobb, at his own request, was granted a supernumerary relation. Question 23 was taken up: "Who are the supernumerary preachers?" S. J. Kaler, H. J. Shaffner, A. M. Hough, J. McKeely, S. J. Guilbertson, A. C. Hays, J. A. Dierks, D. M. Campbell, T. M. Leiby, J. S. Kline, J. D. Crum, J. W. Leach, R. S. Badger. They were continued, and J. W. Stowell, R. S. Uren, and J. C. Gowan were added to the supernumerary list. J. W. Phelps' character passed, and he was granted a supernumerary relation.

The bishop then introduced Dr. Charles H. Payne, secretary of the Board of Education, who gave a stirring address upon the work of the church in education. Last year this society aided 126 young men and women, 1000 of whom are preparing for the ministry or missionary work. The society contributed last year $465 to this fund, and received $967.50, to assist twenty young men and women within its bounds. The doctor made a plea for the unifying and consolidation of educational institutions and educational work in this conference and on this coast.

The secretary read several papers, which were laid upon the table and referred to the proper committees.

Conference closed with benediction by Dr. MacLay.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was held at 3 o'clock, Mrs. Charlotte O'Neal presiding.

Mrs. J. W. Campbell offered prayer, and scriptures were read by Mrs. Taylor. Miss Nettie Shaffner rendered a vocal solo.

Mrs. F. S. Woodcock, conference secretary, read the annual report, showing that there are in the conference sixty auxiliaries and eleven bands, and $3065 have been raised during the year. An increase of $395 over last year. Mrs. F. S. Woodcock was introduced and received with applause. He defined, in a few words, what he believed to be the woman's sphere: "The sphere of the woman is the home of the Lord."

He held that the woman's crusade had had much to do with the development of woman and the assigning her to her proper sphere. His reference to the crusade was very touching, his wife being one of the seventy-three of immortal fame who were arrested and sent to jail, the doctor and his little son accompanying her.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, it was stated, is but twenty-five years old, yet see what has been accomplished, the amount of money it has sent to foreign lands, the high regard in which it is held, and the reflex influence upon the home, and especially upon the women in foreign lands.

An earnest appeal was made that we, in this Christian land, deal kindly and tenderly with those whom God has sent to our shores, for in them we can, and ought to recognize a brother or a sister. Bishop Andrews was the next speaker. He stated that he desired to bear personal testimony to the work of woman in China, and for the past eight years he has been in that country. He has visited India, Mexico, Japan, Korea and China, and in each of these fields there was visible a people which he has never seen elsewhere. There was evinced the wisest management and most careful judgment in all the plans and execution of its work, and it has accomplished most marvelous success.

and is doing to bring her sister women to the gospel of Christ.

EVENING SESSION.

In the evening the educational anniversary was held, commencing at 7:30 o'clock.

Dean W. S. Matthews presided, and the principal address was made by Dr. Charles H. Payne, conference secretary of the Board of Education. His theme was "Methodism and Higher Education."

This address was followed by a few words from Dr. MacLay, representing the School of Theology, and by Dr. P. Widney, president of the University of Southern California.

CONFERENCE NOTES.
Let some generous layman send $25, $50 or $100, to help out that struggling church at Summer.

Three parsonages were built in the Fresno district this year. J. F. Brown severs his relations with the conference and enters the ministry of the Congregational Church, in which house in Santa Monica he carries out the best wishes of his brethren.

Fifteen thousand dollars was paid on church debts, and $10,000 for improvement in the Los Angeles district. It is a matter of deep regret that Rev. J. W. Phelps, one of the most successful ministers of the conference, is forced because of ill-health, to take a year of rest.

Six hundred and fifty conversions and 500 accessions to the church, in the Los Angeles district, were reported. Dr. Payne today is to deliver an address before the Congress of Religions at Chicago on the 28th inst. His addresses have been highly appreciated, and all unite in saying "Come again."

J. M. Leiby, supernumerary member of the conference, is seriously ill at his home in Santa Monica, but his sympathy were passed by the conference.

TODAY'S PROGRAMME.

Today's programme is as follows: 8:30 a.m., conference session. 2 p.m., memorial service. 3 p.m., missionary sermon by Rev. C. Miller.

7:30 p.m., church extension anniversary, addressed by Revs. William Pittenger, W. L. Douglas and H. Cox, D.D.

Stewart Heard from.
Chief Glass yesterday received a telegram from Detective Auble at El Paso, Tex., saying that the defaulting deputy street superintendent, at 10 o'clock. Later another telegram was received from Auble, saying that he had been arrested, but that Chief of Police Kirk of El Paso stated that he had but $230, and asking what course he was pursuing in the matter.

The chief wired Auble to return with his prisoner as soon as possible, and to take no chances on Stewart getting out on habeas corpus proceedings, and that the money question could be investigated later. Nothing has been heard since, and if Auble caught the morning train he should get here this afternoon.

No further shortage has been discovered in Stewart's accounts, and as a very careful investigation has been made it is believed that the amount given yesterday, $2120, will cover the entire amount.

There is much speculation about the City Hall as to what kind of a story Stewart will tell when he gets back. The youngster is reported to have confessed his troubles to several persons some time before his pasculations were discovered.

A NOVEL GLOVE FASTENING.

(From Our Regular New York Fashion Correspondent.)

A new scheme is to have gloves fastened with straps and buckles. The buckles are delicate little filigree and jeweled things. Of course, fastening them means time, but that is not an objection if the hand is tiny, the wrist a round one, and one's admirer admires at the time. But the buckle is merely an ornament and a sham on many gloves, the button, very tiny, being just where the lap of the little strap hides it. On heavy gloves the strap idea is not so good, as the strap, the latter being made on the garter buckle plan without prongs. They don't get out of order; they don't come off, and the glove can be tightened as the hand stretches. Not all women know that the baggy glove, become so after very little wear, is much improved by setting the buttons back a little or sewing up one end of the buttonhole and cutting the other end a little further into the glove.

Of the two little girls in this picture, the one who wears a pretty sailor dress, and its material is certainly a novelty, being white wash-leather. The full skirt is trimmed with rows of blue braid, and is, of course, unlined. The blouse is also without lining and has a separate plastron in front which is buttoned to the blouse beneath the sailor collar. The latter is fashioned of dark blue batiste and garnished with rows of white braid. The fabric used in the other little gown is white, and the plastron is shirred to form a square yoke and buttons in the back. The full skirt has a turned back cuff edged with narrow lace. The dress crosses over in front and back, and is edged with a fine knife pleating of pink batiste. It hooks with the belt in front. The skirt is pleated and unlined. Around the hem there is a band of pink batiste and the same material forms the belt. Butterfly bows of pink batiste ribbon ornament the shoulders. FLORETTE.

That Old Slender About Tred.

(Fronton O. Register.) A paper is being circulated in town for signatures, refuting the silly tale of a sporting paper that George Treadway, the now celebrated baseball player of fronton, who belongs to the Baltimore club, is a white man, but a negro. The story emanated, no doubt, from some sensational reporter. Mr. Treadway will be in town next month to join his wife, a California lady whom he married last January, and who has been visiting her husband's mother since September 1.

COURT RECORD. ON SECOND TRIAL.

Why Hamilton Shot the Frenchman.

A Most Gauzy Tale Told by the Defendant.

Alimony Proceedings in the Morgan Divorce Case.

The Defendant Must Pay Up in Ten Days—Orders Made in the Superior Department—New Suits—Court Notes.

Horatio K. Hamilton had his second trial yesterday for assault with intent to commit murder.

One Sunday over two months ago Hamilton was at his cabin on a government claim of land up near Lang station, when two French sheep herders named respectively Joseph Commu and Bernard Ganshau drove their flocks along the road running through his land. Hamilton objected to the sheep being driven through his property, and a quarrel ensued, which resulted in Hamilton drawing a pistol and firing four shots, one of which wounded Ganshau quite seriously.

Hamilton claimed that the shooting was done in self-defense, but the Frenchmen told quite a different story. They said that it was necessary that they should traverse the road with their sheep. On the morning of June 25 they started their band alone, but when Hamilton's land was reached they were stopped by the rancher, who insisted that they pay him $5 before driving the sheep through the land. He said that other herders had done so before them, and they must accede to his demands or he would prevent their advance. When he saw that the sheep men were determined to go on and not pay the $5 he became angry, and proceeded to carry out his threats by pulling a revolver and commencing to shoot. When one of the men fell he turned and ran away as fast as he could. Several days afterward he was arrested and taken to the County Jail, where he has since been confined.

On the witness stand yesterday the accused stated that the sheep of Commu and Ganshau had done considerable damage to his growing crops, and that he had warned the men that if they did not cease to allow the animals to trespass on his premises that he would require damages. One of their continued depredations the shooting arose.

On the argument the attorneys were allowed but forty minutes by Judge Shaw, before whom the case was tried, and the cause was submitted to the jury at 5 o'clock.

At 11 o'clock the jury returned into court with a verdict of guilty of assault with a deadly weapon.

MUST PAY ALIMONY.

T. W. Morgan appeared yesterday in Department Four, in response to an order requiring him to show cause why he should not pay to his wife $100 alimony pending a decision in the divorce case brought against him.

It seems that, some time ago, about the time action was commenced, Mrs. Morgan was in need of money to provide for necessities and carry on her case, and she applied to her husband for funds. Morgan claimed not to have any money, but, as he had a team, his wife proposed that he let her have the team to sell, and she would turn over to him one-half the proceeds thereof.

This Morgan refused to do, but went and sold the team himself and pocketed the $100 that he received in payment for it. About this time the court ordered that Morgan be restrained from disposing of the team. The latter had not yet received the $100 from the sale, but when he did use the money, with the idea that it did not come under the effect of the restraining order. Yesterday he was given a chance to explain, but he did not do so to the satisfaction of the court, and at the conclusion of the hearing it was ordered that the defendant pay within ten days to the clerk, for the benefit of Mrs. Morgan, $100.

Court Notes.

R. H. A. Mather, a native of Finland, was yesterday admitted to citizenship by Judge Van Dyke.

Thomas Offord, who was sent to the County Hospital several weeks ago for medical treatment, pending an examination as to his sanity, was brought into Department Four yesterday morning, and, it appearing that he had fully recovered his right mind, his discharge was ordered by Judge Van Dyke.

The cause of Nathan Cole, Jr., vs. J. M. Bohnet et al. was yesterday resumed before Judge Van Dyke, when witnesses were examined in behalf of the defense, and a continuance ordered to the 22d.

Ten days' additional time has been granted the defendant to answer in the case of the Southern Pacific Company vs. Wilson, in Department Four. The final account of the assignee in the insolvency case of A. D. Lockhart was presented yesterday in Judge Van Dyke's court and approved. The sale of personal property by the assignee was also approved.

Judgment for $288.08 was yesterday entered by Judge Van Dyke in the foreclosure suit of Haynes vs. Holloway.

Leave was asked yesterday and given the District Attorney, by Judge Shaw, to dismiss the information of embezzlement against A. Lewis, on file, and to prepare an amended information. To this the defendant excepted, and the court fixed September 25 as a time for pleading.

A complaint has been filed by George M. Brassington in a suit for divorce against Caroline Brassington.

On motion of D. P. Hatch, Esq., court was adjourned yesterday in Department Four at 11 o'clock, in order to allow the attorneys time to attend the funeral of W. H. Thomas.

In the Criminal Court the cases of People vs. Ah Hoy and Joseph Hewes have been set for October 31 and November 7, respectively, for trial.

New Suits.

Preliminary papers in the following new suits were filed with the County Clerk yesterday:

John Harold Godfrey vs. Louise Ellis et al.; suit on foreclosure of mortgage for $800 with interest.

Estate of Perry Olmsted; petition to be declared an insolvent.

Today's Calendar.

J. T. Sheward

113-115 N. Spring St.

A LADY came into the big store yesterday and asked for a certain kind of cloth; the salesman said he had nothing of the kind, and the lady started to walk out. She was again asked to visit the counter by the floor-walker and other goods were shown her; they were not the kind of goods she had inquired for; they were a new line, and when the lady saw them she was delighted and was glad she did not find the goods she asked for. Here was neglect on the part of the salesman, here was a streak of laziness. The lady wanted, or thought she did, a certain kind of goods that had been out of the market for two years; when newer styles were displayed the temptations were so great that she became a willing customer and was very grateful at her good luck. How many clerks become flippant at times and neglectful of a plain duty; they are employed for good work, for diligent work, and yet neglectful of these very duties. This is not urging sales; it is interesting customers in what is new. We believe we have a class of clerks who are better than the usual run, yet at times they neglect a plain duty, and for that reason we are more than ever on the alert to show extra attention and to see that the customer receives it. We expect and insist upon proper attention, and when the employees fail to give it we find clerks are easier to secure than customers. One of the big houses of the city said Sheward says more about his polite clerks than he does his goods. True; and this big house is notorious for impertinent salespeople. People know what they want when they see it. When salespeople do their duty and show goods the people buy; for that reason we expect our salespeople to be polite, we expect them to show goods freely, and when they fail in this they neglect a plain duty and run a risk of losing their position. It is not the impolite clerk that is blamed; it is Sheward that gets the overhauling when he is innocent of the breach. Have you visited the Silk Convention? We have been adding to it; it is an adjunct to the big Dress Goods and Cloak Departments—two of the important nooks in the store. Moderate prices, big stocks, the best assorted they have ever been. Velvet of every shade; the greens, heliotropes and browns have not been neglected; Havana brown is equally as good as the greens and heliotropes; they are having a big run East. Havana brown is not neglected in the Cloak Department. More new Millinery, more new Royal Worcester Corsets, more new Muslin Underwear. When you buy a Royal Worcester Corset you buy the best. When you visit the Dress Goods Department you are sure of good goods at a moderate price.

Fruit-growers Show Little Interest in Co-operation.

It is Time to Act—A Wagon Road Up Mt. Wilson—Personal Notes of Interest—A Batch of Brevities.

What are the fruit-growers of this section going to do about organizing themselves into a co-operative association for mutual protection and the furtherance of their interests? The time is ripe for such organization, and the conditions that now control the marketing of the crop of both citrus and deciduous fruits certainly demand it. Every grower is heard complaining about the impossibility of making their orchards prove profitable as long as the fruit-dealers and the commission-men control the situation, and yet when a practical scheme is presented, whereby the existing unsatisfactory state of affairs could be largely done away with, these same growers manifest a lack of interest that is simply inexplicable.

Several meetings have been held with a view to organizing a co-operative association in this district to act in harmony with similar associations, embracing the fruit-growers throughout Southern California. A constitution and by-laws have been drafted, and a committee of eleven as eminently adapted to the conditions and requirements of this section, and all that remains is for the growers generally to manifest a lively interest in the matter, so that the association may be organized without further delay, and in time to combine with the district and executive orange-growers of Southern California. Heretofore less than a score of local orange-growers have manifested the slightest interest in the proposition, which has for its sole aim and object the protection and advancement of this great industry. Other communities are moving and acting, and far Pasadena has done nothing that really counts. It is a matter that does not admit of further delay.

DEMAND FOR A WAGON ROAD.

The suggestion made in the editorial columns of The Times on Thursday, to the effect that the supervisors transfer the Mt. Wilson toll road into a wagon road, meets with unanimous approval in Pasadena. There is no more popular resort in this region than Camp Wilson, near the summit of the famous peak having the same name. At present this favored spot, and the surrounding attractions, are accessible only by a trail, which is a general one, permits only making the ascent either on horseback or muleback. Even under such conditions travel in this direction has been increasing for two years, a surprising number of travelers wending their way in this direction constantly. With a wide road, say that the city of Pasadena, and the county of San Bernardino, running to the top of Mt. Wilson, this spot would become a Mecca for tourists and pleasure-seekers from all over the country. Such a road, of course, be free to everybody, and would furnish means of communication to the mountain tops to many who, on account of physical ailments, would not be able to stand the fatigue of making the journey on horseback. The supervisors will do a wise thing if they carry out this idea, which was first advocated by The Times.

PASADENA BREVITIES.

Thursday morning's overland arrived about five hours late.

The street car track will probably remain on Colorado street.

Who owns that Linda Vista street car line franchise anyway?

Mrs. Thomas Holmes, who has been ill for some time, has suffered a relapse.

That popular uprising against the Chinese in Pasadena, as predicted by a contemporary, has not yet materialized.

Jesse Knight and family will leave in a few days on an extended Eastern trip, which will include a visit to the World's Fair.

Red fires burned brightly at Camp Wilson Thursday evening, and were answered by similar illuminations at several places in Los Angeles and Pasadena.

It is rumored that Hogan Bros' big blow on Thursday brought to light the remains of a man who was drowned in the mud on Colorado street last winter.

Sidewalk-laying is progressing rapidly on East Colorado street. The workmen are at present engaged on the south side of the street, between Main and Lake avenues.

Architect Strange returned on Thursday from a short trip to Catalina, and is once more on duty at Hotel Green, seeing that the work is being done according to the specifications.

Contractor Fairchild, Manager Drain, Street Superintendent Brown and Inspector Wright are keeping their eagle eyes respectively fixed on the paving preliminaries on Colorado street.

Considerable complaint is heard concerning the manner in which shade trees in various parts of town have been butchered in order to make room for electric light and fire alarm wires.

Some people have trimmed their per trees and others have not. Those who have not will possibly have cause to regret it some time soon. Once in a while a "Santa Ana" strikes the town during the fall months.

The Pasadena baseball club will play a match game with the Alhambra club Saturday afternoon, at Athletic Park, in a match-up as follows: Hicks, Hemphill, Beebe, Lippincott, Johnson, Blatnburg, Rippey, Britton, and Buchanan.

A committee has been appointed, with C. C. Brown as chairman, to make arrangements for the reception to be given soon by John F. Godfrey Post and auxiliary organizations, in honor of the opening of the new G. A. R. Hall in the Frost Block.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. McFarland, Mrs. Eliza A. Otis, Miss Otis and Harry Chandler of Los Angeles came to Pasadena on the 12:20 Terminal train Thursday afternoon, and started at once for Camp Wilson, on the Summit of Mt. Wilson, over the new trail.

Late arrivals at the Hotel Balmoral include: Mrs. Park, Fellows, Mrs. Frances Fellows, Oakland; L. B. Morrison and wife, Miss Jean Morrison, Miss Margia Morrison, Miss L. Whitney, Mrs. Waterhouse, San Gabriel; Charles E. Bancroft, San Francisco; E. H. Atwood, St. Cloud, Minn.; D. H. Bush

Thorp University has reopened this fall under the most gratifying conditions. Over fifty new students have already been enrolled, swelling the total number to over two hundred. Among the new students are several of the educational institutions of the country can boast of a like record.

On Sunday, October 1, religious meetings will be held at Williams Hall, at 10:30 a.m., 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. They will be addressed by Rev. J. M. Hervey and wife and Mrs. A. W. Walton of Los Angeles and Mrs. Scudder, of the city. The pastor himself has the honor of being named as the first postmaster.

(Star.) A petition is in circulation for the creation of a postoffice to be named Mt. Lowe, which will accommodate the people of all that section, from Mt. Lowe to Rubio, and will probably have the office at Echo Mountain. The petition has been signed by a number of being named as the first postmaster.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY.

Sad Death of the Only Son of O. T. Dyer.

Accidentally Shot by a Companion While on a Hunting Trip—Physicians Object to Paying a License—Brevities.

While hunting down the valley on Wednesday afternoon Leman Dyer, only son of O. T. Dyer of the Riverside Banking Company, was accidentally shot in the calf of the leg by Tommy Weed, his companion in the hunt. The wounded boy was carried by Weed to their wagon, half a mile distant, and they drove to Gage's camp and summoned medical aid from this city. But the surgeons were too late in arriving, as an hour later young Dyer died from loss of blood, an artery having been severed by the gunshot. All day Thursday Weed has been practically insane because of the accident.

The city has finally taken control of the town clock in that it has agreed to meet the expense of keeping it in repair.

In the Superior Court on Thursday Stone was on trial for robbing the station agent at Indio of some $55, and was acquitted, witnesses for the State failing to appear.

The Superior Court has granted the motion of George A. Carter to the effect that some eleven thousand sacks of barley, the property of a general agent, held by the Sheriff under an attachment to be sold to cover an indebtedness of Mr. Greene to Mr. Carter.

Mike Cusick, who gave J. W. Holmes such a beating, cutting and bruising him in a dreadful manner in a drunken brawl at the shanty of F. Koep, has been held for trial by Justice Patton. A number of the physicians of the city have petitioned the trustees to repeal the city ordinance requiring physicians to pay a license fee. They say that the law is a hardship on the poor of the city for which they receive no compensation, and should not be taxed. The petitioners are the city of Riverside expects to have representatives at the International Irrigation Congress at Los Angeles next month, but has not yet chosen the delegates to be sent. As this valley is one of the best examples of the transformation which may be wrought in a country by irrigation, it is fitting that it should be well represented at so important a congress.

ORANGE COUNTY.

The Supervisors Again Inspect the River Bed.

Progress of the Work of Straightening the Channel—A New Pavilion for the Fair—Orange News and Notes.

The Board of Supervisors and County Surveyor made another personal inspection of the Santa Ana River on Thursday at points where it is proposed to protect and straighten the banks so as to prevent the overflows that have proved to be such a detriment with the coming of each winter season. The object of the inspection was more particularly to decide upon the kind of work to be done near the Fifth street bridge. In Santa Ana, in order that the best results might be obtained with the least expenditure of money. An official report of the inspection will be made at the meeting of the board next Monday. The work preparatory to the construction of the Fifth street bridge is progressing nicely. Sixty-five men were at work Thursday in the lower county, when the board visited that locality, clearing away the debris and making ready for the construction of the new banks. About twenty-five men from this city have gone down to go to work, and so far the work has been satisfactory. The new route for the river is cleared of debris now, and it will not be long before the work will be done if the matter is pushed along as rapidly all the way through as it has been begun.

The following work will be transacted by the board in executive session before it started out on its tour of inspection: The lumber to be used in the work along the river were received from the Newport Lumber Company and the San Pedro Lumber Company. The first company has a large stock of redwood lumber, assorted sizes, at $17 per thousand; eight foot redwood 4x4, $15 per thousand, and the second company offered rough redwood, assorted sizes, $17.50 per thousand; eight foot redwood 4x4, $14.50 per thousand. The contract was awarded to the Newport company.

A NEW PAVILION FOR THE FAIR.

Spurgeon's Operahouse will be used this year by the Orange County Fair Association as a pavilion in which the products of the soil and the handicrafts of the residents of the county will be exhibited.

Heretofore the association has always used French's Operahouse, as it was considered the only house in the city having suitable room for the exhibit. Arrangements have been made, however, so that the same amount of floor space has been secured in the new location, at about half the expense of the former building.

The center of the main hall in the new location will be retained as an exhibit room for the fair. The hall, through Armory Hall, and over into the large compartments formerly occupied by the Orange County Herald.

As a number of the physicians of the city have petitioned the trustees to repeal the city ordinance requiring physicians to pay a license fee. They say that the law is a hardship on the poor of the city for which they receive no compensation, and should not be taxed. ## A Quandary for Railroad Officials—A Rate for the Midwinter Fair—General and Local Railroad Notes.

A truce is already announced in the passenger-rate war over east-bound rates. Yesterday afternoon T. P. Duzan, agent for the Burlington route here, received a private telegram from the general agent at San Francisco saying that the Southern Pacific would on October 1, restore the cut passenger rates to the old figure. This news was received again in an Associated Press dispatch last evening, saying that the company had published such a notice. This action will increase the Kansas City and Chicago rates from Los Angeles $15, the amount of the cut from the $30 rate. It is supposed that this action was the result of an agreement between the warring roads, and though the Santa Fe is getting the most of the traffic, there is not now enough passenger business to be worth the fight. The Southern Pacific will continue to ticket passengers by way of El Paso and Fort Worth, and make a winter route of the lines that figured in the $15 cut-rate surprise. The Santa Fe will get as many passengers at the higher rates as it does at the present one, with increased revenue. It is probable that the general passenger departments of both the rival roads will receive their first information of the Southern Pacific notice when their impression of the Times reaches them.

FREIGHT TRAIN TOURISTS.
As will be seen by reference to an article in another column of this paper, the boxcar, brakebeam and blind-baggage tourists are already arriving in Southern California in such numbers as to be almost alarming. It has been frequently stated in this department that the coming winter would see such a swarm of unemployed and poor people come to this country as was never before known. The arrivals in the past two days have been surprising in the most pessimistic prognosticator, not so much in point of numbers as in the promptness shown in fleeing to a country of mild climate, good food and plenty. If crowds of moneyless men can come across this continent now without paying a cent for railroad fare, forcing their way by intimidation of train hands and scoring the pungent representation of the law at division points and way stations, what can be expected when frost begins to nip the hungry and poverty-stricken unemployed yet remaining in the East? As has been shown by the hegeira of miners from Colorado to Eastern States, a mob of one hundred and fifty or two hundred determined men can, without causing any disorder, take possession of a train and ride to its destination in stolid or active defiance of train crews and officers. There is every winter an augmentation of California's population by migratory and moneyless men who travel by slow freight, but where heretofore they came singly, in pairs or in very small parties, now begin to come by the hundred. Railroad officials say they are powerless to prevent this wholesale dead-beating, for their train crews usually number only about five men, and it is cheaper to carry the fellows than to fight them. The great number of job-seekers who come in this way will be followed later by others who will be able to pay a low rate of fare to California, bringing wives and children, and trusting to luck to find a means of subsistence when they reach the promised land.

MIDWINTER FAIR RATES.
CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—(By the Associated Press.) The Western lines are beginning to consider the question of rates to the Northern Pacific Exposition. The probability is that the World's Fair rate will be maintained.

NORTHERN PACIFIC MATTERS.
NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(By the Associated Press.) At a meeting of the directors of the Northern Pacific, this morning a resolution was adopted setting forth the side of the case of the present management in connection with the recent fight for the position of president. The committee appointed to receive proxies has submitted the following names to be supported by the directors: J. B. Wright, Charles Tower, Jr., D. H. Houghtaling, R. C. Mastin, C. T. Barney, T. P. Oakes, William L. Bull, J. B. Williams, J. B. Hardin, and William R. Merriam. The names of two others necessary to complete the ticket will be presented in the near future.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 21.—(By the Associated Press.) Judge Jenkins has granted the petition of the Northern Pacific receivers to have the order of the court in the receivers' certificates modified, because some New York holders of securities refuse to take the certificates unless made to mature on April 1, instead of September 1. The court ordered the issuance of $3,400,000 of certificates to be known as series A, and $1,600,000 as series B, all to be taken at once.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 21.—(By the Associated Press.) The Northern Pacific receivers stated in court today that holders of securities given as collateral to secure the floating debt will not release these securities and take receivers' certificates.

ANOTHER RECEIVER.
SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) Sept. 21.—(By the Associated Press.) Judge Allen, in the United States Circuit Court this afternoon, appointed C. H. Bosworth of Springfield and E. Ellery Anderson of New York receivers for the Jacksonville Southern Railroad. This road was until recently used by the Santa Fe for a Chicago-St. Louis line, but the arrangement was annulled on account of complaints against the Southern's manipulation of Santa Fe tickets, keeping the latter road constantly in a stew with the Western Passenger Association.

THE UNION PACIFIC MEN.
OMAHA (Nebr.) Sept. 21.—(By the Associated Press.) Union Pacific employees voted not to submit to a reduction of wages. On the Nebraska division, the men voted to make a loan to the company of 10 per cent. of their monthly salaries until January 1. The protective board of the system will meet on Monday to make final arrangements for the federation.

HEART IS ALL RIGHT.
The Anaheim Gazette printed this: "A couple of weeks ago we printed an item to the effect that one Miss E. L. Hoffman had beaten the Santa Fe railroad out of a round-trip fare to Los Angeles and back, and that she had worked Conductor Heart for the trip to Los Angeles. In justice to that gentleman, who has been unwittingly accused of violating one of the cardinal rules of the railroad about carrying deadbeat passengers, we desire to say that the item, so far as his train was concerned, was incorrect. We have known Mr. Heart since his coming among us, and a more scrupulous railroad official in the protection of the company's interests, as well as accommodating gentlemen in every way, we have seldom, if ever, had the pleasure of running across. We printed the item with some misgivings as to Conductor Heart's best interests, and that if he ever found anyone on his train attempting to beat him for a ride, he'd make him pungle up pretty quick, or get off the cars. As to whether Miss Hoffman worked the company for a free ride to Los Angeles and back, we printed the item as a current piece of gossip, and if it isn't true, why isn't it true that all? Even if true, it isn't the worst thing she ever did."

SCRAP HEAP.
T. H. Duzan of the Burlington will today go up to Anaheim to see his new grand-daughter, and bring back Mrs. Duzan with him.

Ticket agents up in San Francisco who have been wanting a real rate war are likely to be disappointed. The agents down here will be correspondingly glad.

The Atlantic and Pacific's cut of $3.15 on Chicago tickets at San Francisco did not attract any business.

AN ANGLo-INDIAN VIEW.

Some of the Merits and Demerits of California Touched Upon.

The Englishman, a daily newspaper published at Calcutta, India, in its issue of August 5 has an editorial of considerable length and interest in regard to inquiries being frequently made by Anglo-Indians concerning the fitness of California as a place of residence. Owing to this fact, the Englishman states, much importance attaches to the official papers and advertisements relating to the southern portion of the State, which are now being circulated by the United States Consul-General. It puts some of the merits and demerits of Southern California before its readers, as follows:

"The information is chiefly in the form of California publications, which naturally dwell upon the attractions offered to settlers, and make little allusion to the accompanying drawbacks, but the actual statistics are no doubt thoroughly reliable, and afford materials for a most valuable comparison with the 'Australasia' and 'New Zealand' scheme, which has been so much discussed. Compared with the Island of Oceania, California has the great advantage of easy communication with Europe and immediate connection with the civilization of the United States. On the other hand, it is under another flag, and appertains to the civilization of America, which is fast divorcing from that of England. So far as climate is concerned, Southern California will probably bear comparison with any place in the world. It extends along the coast of the Pacific for a distance of about two hundred and seventy miles, with an average width of one hundred and fifty. The great sierra walls in the country from the arid inland plain, and there is a coast range, broken at intervals and in places by fertile valleys, which are open to the sea. The result is a dry and bracing climate of singular healthfulness. On the coast it is cool, even in summer, with occasional fogs at night. Further inland it becomes warmer, and in places decidedly hot at times, though, owing to the dry atmosphere, a temperature of 100 degrees Fahrenheit is said to be less oppressive than one of 50 degrees in New York. The average temperature ranges from 55 degrees in winter to 70 degrees in summer, and it is claimed that, even on a winter's day, a traveler may breakfast on the seashore, after an enjoyable dip in the ocean, lunch amid the orange groves, and dine in the snow fields of the sierras. Water is somewhat scarce, and the chief drawbacks are dust in the summer and fog in the winter; but, upon the whole, the climate is so delightful that the country is becoming a health resort for invalids from all parts of the world."

"The editorial then pictures our growing fruit industry of the South, where oranges, peaches, grapes and figs flourish in profusion. Profits and wages are touched upon, together with prices of land and living, and the article concludes thus:

"The chief city is Los Angeles, which contains about fifty thousand inhabitants, and is said to be a pleasant place of residence. A comfortable little house containing from four to six rooms in a good neighborhood, with a garden, is said to be sold for $10,000. Los Angeles, rents for from twenty-five to seventy-five rupees a month, and as supplies are plentiful, living cannot be so expensive as in other parts of the world. It is difficult to compare the requirements of an Anglo-Indian with those of the ordinary colonist who has his home before him, and whose chief strength necessary for roughing it. The great question is that of domestic service, and here reports and advertisements alike are provokingly silent. The price of one domestic servant, indeed, is entered in one place as ranging from forty-five to 120 rupees a month—a scale of remuneration well calculated to discourage the most hopeful of would-be Anglo-Indian settlers; but these figures no doubt refer only to the rates paid for white labor, which is exceedingly scarce. Some years ago Chinamen were plentiful upon the Pacific Coast, and made cheap and excellent domestic servants, but the Chinese press reports make hardly any allusion to the celestial appears to indicate that this invaluable member of society has succumbed to the legislative changes that have been waged against him. This is a point of such vital importance in considering the desirability of California as a place of residence for the Anglo-Indians that the bureau of information in Los Angeles would do a useful service in issuing a special bulletin upon the subject."

The San Francisco Tragedy.
The mysterious San Francisco tragedy, which was discovered by the finding of a woman's head encased in wire netting and floating in the bay, appears to be nearing solution. The head has been identified as that of Addie Gilmore, a young Colusa milliner, and it has been discovered that she was the victim of a criminal operation performed by a Dr. J. H. H. who has been arrested. It appears that there is a Los Angeles connection, as the Examiner says it has been discovered that she had lately been receiving letters from a young man of Los Angeles, and proudly exhibited the photograph of a low, sandy, "sporty" looking young fellow, saying that he was the Los Angeles gentleman, whom she called Jack. Detectives are looking into the matter here.

77 YEARS OLD.
I am seventy-seven years old, and have had my age renewed at least twenty years by the use of Swift's Specific. My foot and leg were so sore for two years, and physicians said it could not be cured. After taking fifteen small bottles of S. S. I feel like a new man, and have a new lease on life. I am glad to let all sufferers know of your wonderful remedy. IRA F. STILES, Palmer, Kansas City.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

Mr. Shoulters Has Commenced His Investigation.

Determined to Trace the Slandering Stories to the Fountain Head—What Has So Far Been Discovered.

City Treasurer H. J. Shoulters yesterday took the preliminary steps for fixing the responsibility for the sensational story that the name which he has borne all his life was an assumed one, and that, instead of being H. J. Shoulters, he was one Coulter of Oswego, Kan., who was wanted for a defalcation committed in the government service at that place. Of course, there is not the slightest foundation in fact for the story, nor was there any cause or reason for confounding Mr. Shoulters with Coulter, as the former was never in Kansas, except when he passed through the State on his way to California, did not resemble Coulter, and could be traced by the government records as far back as 1862, when he enlisted in the Union army. That there was a John Coulter, who figured in some sort of a crooked transaction in Oswego, Kan., there is no doubt, for G. W. Phelps of the firm of M. L. Samson & Co., on First street, formerly lived at that place, and distinctly remembers the occurrence.

Mr. Shoulters was in his office, at the City Hall, in usual, and during the day many of his friends called to see him. Some of these had known him since he lived in Batavia, N. Y. Shoulters says he will lift the matter to the bottom, as he intends to trace the slander to its fountain head.

George E. Bouton says that he was told the story by ex-City Treasurer M. D. Johnson, and that he only repeated it to Mr. Flint. Mr. Johnson was not at his office yesterday, and could not be seen.

CARD FROM MR. SHOULTERS.

LOS ANGELES (Cal.) Sept. 21.—(To the Editor of The Times.) Referring to the article in this morning's Times headed "Mistaken Identity," I wish to call your attention to the fact that the initials of one of the parties who (so far as I am at present informed) was the main instigator of the malicious charges. It should be M. D. instead of M. L. Johnson, late City Treasurer, and more recently a candidate for County Treasurer. I think this correction should be made, so that all may know this sneaking individual as he is.

In order that this person (Johnson) or any of his pals may wish to look up my past record I will, in brief, give all the places in which I have resided since boyhood: Batavia and Rochester, N. Y.; Valparaiso and Crown Point, Ind.; Litchfield, Minn.; Chicago, Ill. (only two months); and the balance of the time in Los Angeles, Cal. (except the time I spent in the army, over two years). The number of my pension certificate is 36,347, and the records of the War Department will show that I served in Co. H, One Hundred and Forty N. Y., under the name of H. J. Shoulters, and was discharged by reason of wounds received in action.

As stated above, this will give these persons a clue whereby they can proceed to investigate, and I have not succeeded in running down the two gentlemen from the East who first reported to this great Detective Johnson, whether he has succeeded in discovering the parties who have been shadowing me.

DEATH RECORD.

HASWELL—September 21, in Oakland, Cal., Rev. C. S. Haswell, aged 78 years. WAGNER—In this city, September 21, Cornelius Wagner, aged 65 years. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, September 23, at 10 a.m., from his late residence, 222 Ash street.

Four years ago my daughter, Virginia Bell, was treated by Dr. Wong for what physicians called her disease, and had pronounced incurable after treating her for eight years. Dr. Wong's diagnosis was that she was afflicted with one of the most fatal forms of cancer. His medicine effected a permanent cure in seven months' time. Two years ago my grandson became blind in one eye. Dr. Wong restored his sight in three weeks' time. My wife, Mrs. A. M. Avela, has been afflicted with rheumatism for several months. I took Dr. Wong's medicine and was cured in seven months. I enjoy excellent health and weigh 120 pounds.

Richard Conrad of Boston is visiting Los Angeles in the interest of a syndicate of capitalists, who think of buying land and improving it in small tracts, and also of building houses in the city to rent, all of which is enterprise greatly needed here.

As far as known, the saloon men have not as yet been officially notified of the action of the police commissioners in regard to closing side entrances and taking out back rooms and booths, which is supposed to go into effect October 1. But eight days remain in which to do the work, and it will require some lively work to make the necessary changes in the time required.

County Treasurer-elect Fleming has about completed his official bond, and the instrument was filed yesterday.

The thirty-four volumes of Alameda county contained 6200 pages, when it should have read 7200 pages. This would indicate that the citizens' League was right in its lowest estimate, when it asked the Board of Supervisors to pay but $700 for 7000 pages for extending the tax roll of Los Angeles county. The cost in Alameda county is considerably less per page than the lowest price suggested by the league.

Articles of Incorporation have been filed by the Pioneer Fruit-growers' Association of Los Angeles, organized with a capital stock of $200, $200 of which has been already subscribed. The board of directors is composed of G. J. Griffith, H. R. Smith, Thomas Mullan, I. H. Brewer, E. H. Morgan, W. B. Bennett, Thomas Meade, R. J. Dorsey, George Hanna, G. W. Townsend and A. E. Pletney. The incorporators number forty-seven persons.

Thrown from a Wagon.
William Newport, a well-known rancher of Menefee, Parris Valley, met with a serious accident Wednesday afternoon, which will probably confine him to the house for some weeks.

Mr. Newport was driving a two-horse team, when the tongue of the wagon broke, and he was thrown violently to the ground, sustaining a severe sprain of the ankle.

JOHN'S RESPITE.

Only Two Warrants of Arrest Issued Yesterday.

Less Eagerness Displayed in Swearing to Complaints Against Chinamen—Many Reasons for the Loss of Interest.

Today there will be several Chinese cases, both before Judge Rosser and United States Commissioner Van Dyke. The young heathen named Wah Ling, who claims he was born in San Francisco, will learn his fate in the District Court, as will also three Chinamen named Bakersfield. Before Commissioner Van Dyke, the five high-blinders from Fresno, who were arrested under the provisions of the former exclusion acts, will be given a hearing.

The deportation bill ground very slowly yesterday. Only two warrants having been issued. Ever since Judge Rosser's latest decision, and the subsequent declaration of Dist. Atty. Denis that the policy of his office will hereafter be to limit as much as possible the arrests to the criminal classes, there has been less eagerness displayed in the swearing to complaints. The officials around the Federal Court-house are beginning to notice this falling off, and ascribe various reasons for the change.

One of the causes given for this evident loss of interest is the facility displayed by the highblinder class in keeping out of sight. Another, and probably the chief cause, is the usual lack of attention paid by the individual to matters which concern the public good. "What is everybody's business is nobody's business" is a maxim exemplified. The highblinders harm their own countrymen most, consequently Americans, following the selfish dictates of nature, do not display that feeling which is the result of competition or trade. It is in proportion to the extent to which the individual is interested in the matter, from the ignorant, hoodwinked heathen that they swear out complaints against those who prey upon their credulity. White men must do this.

To those whose duty it is to pass on the Chinese cases it therefore appears strange that, under the popular belief, often unjust, the officers of the law usually "stand in" and protect the highblinder class, so little interested in the matter by citizens who "know their rights, and knowing them should insist on them."

Another reason given is the published report that Judge McKenna has made a ruling that hereafter in the arrests of Chinese for ultimate deportation, the true name of the complainant must be given in the complaint. This rule has not yet been put in practice here, most of the Chinamen, so far, having been arrested under the name of John Doe, and other fictitious titles. But this rule, even if enforced, would only serve to better carry out the intended policy of the Federal authorities. The highblinders are well-known by their real names, while the ignorant coolies, scattered about among the wash houses and vegetable gardens, answer to almost any monosyllabic title.

Still another reason, but the official place little credence in the story, is the report that a few "witnesses" are hunting up those native-born Chinese who have been arrested and afterward discharged, and are getting the heathen on to begin suits for false imprisonment. Of course, such news as this serves to make people more careful in making their complaints, and it should be an easy matter to ascertain the nativity of the yellow-men, so few of them having been born in this country.

Another phase of the Chinese question, which bodes little good for the future, is treated in another column. The great influx of unemployed men from other sections of the country has been caused chiefly by the sensational and untruthful reports sent broadcast that the Chinese are being deported in shoals. These unfortunate Eastern men, having lost their employment at their homes, immediately make up their minds to come to California. Many have enough money to pay their fares, but many more are "beat the way" and are in force of numbers overawe the authorities en route. This heavy influx, a large part of it consists of certain kinds of skilled labor, against which the Chinese now here have no competition, is bound to make inroads on home artisans, who have, so far, suffered comparatively little from the presence of hard times except in the railroad shops, where such a rigid retrenchment policy has been adopted.

DANDRUFF is a disease of the scalp. Van Haren's Quinine Hair Tonic cures it.

IT'S HIGH TIME something was done, if your blood is impure. You can't mistake the symptoms. Blisters and pimples, or a feeling of languor and depression are some of them. If you "let it go," you're an easy prey to all sorts of serious ailments.

Now, the best blood-purifier in the world is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Take that, and it will certainly rid you of every blood-taint and disorder. It starts every organ into healthful action, assists all the bodily functions, and cleanses, builds up, and invigorates the whole system. C. M. D. far surpasses any Cod Liver Oil and all its filthy compounds as a flesh-builder and strength-restorer.

For every disease caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, Dyspepsia, "Liver Complaint," the most stubborn Skin, Scap, or Scrofulous affections—even Consumption, or Lung-scrofula, in its earlier stages—it's the only remedy so sure and effective that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.

Can anything else be "just as good" for you to buy?

The Late W. H. Thomas.
In accordance with the announcement made on Wednesday, a meeting of the Bar Association was held yesterday morning in Department Two. J. A. Donnell, Esq., occupied the chair, and stated at the outset that the meeting had been called for the purpose of making preparation for attending the funeral of W. H. Thomas. It was determined finally to attend the funeral in a body, and an adjournment was taken until Monday, when resolutions of respect and regard for the deceased will be adopted.

The funeral of Mr. Thomas took place from the residence, in Garvanza, yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended.

Great Shoe Sale.

THOSE who have visited our shoe stores during our great Odds and Ends Sale have no doubt come to the conclusion not only that we carry the largest shoe stock in the city, but that we have a larger stock of shoes than all the rest of the shoe stocks in city combined. Buying direct in large quantities from the manufacturers, we are placed in a position to dispose of goods at much lower figures than other dealers, who buy in sparingly small quantities.

Today we start a great shoe sale and continue the same for one week; so all those who are in need of honest and reliable footwear will find it to their benefit to take advantage of this sale.
